FINAL ACTION

Applicant's amendment of 02-20-04 has been considered. However, applicant's argument has not been found persuasive, and thus, has not overcome the previous rejections of 112/1st paragraph. Therefore, said rejections are maintained herein for claims 1-3, 5-9, 11, 13, 14, and 22.

Claims 1-22 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. Lack of Written Description (for spiro-cycle): Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11, 13, 14 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Applicant asserted that the limitation of R⁵ and R⁶ forming a ring (i.e., spiro-cycle) would only be a generic description, and thus, would not need a specific description of the arrangement of atoms. However, the general reaction schemes provided do not even allow a step where R⁵ and R⁶ can form a ring. Applicant contended that the spiro-cycle could be made from a known reaction (as described in Schemes 1 and 2 in applicant's remark). However, the claimed compound is more complicated than that of the cited Schemes 1 and 2. If one were to follow such a scheme, would one need to form the spiro-cycle before adding the group of -NH-SO₂-R⁴, or after adding said group? From the generic reaction schemes provided and the preferred embodiment, there appears to have no description of a spiro-cycle.

2. Enablement (for spiro-cycle): Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11, 13, 14 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. As discussed in the paragraph above, there is no guidance in the specification that would lead to a spiro-cyclic compound. The reference cited in applicant's remark does not sufficiently guide the skilled chemist in the making and using spiro-cyclic compounds. Note, the process for making a spiro-cycle requires an additional step that is not taught by the instant disclosure. In an unpredictable art such as chemistry, an additional step could result in an unforeseen by-product, which in turn would give an undesired impurity. Therefore, undue experimentation would be inevitable to make a spiro-cycle claimed herein.

3. Lack of Written Description: Claim 22 remains rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Although claim 22 has been amended to "a method for treating a potassium channel mediated cell proliferative disorder", it still does not indicate which disorder gets treated. The phrase "cell proliferative disorder" covers an array of disorders including both cancerous and non-cancerous ones. It even includes embryo genesis, in which case, the "method for treating a potassium channel mediated cell proliferative disorder” would ultimately include a method for inhibiting embryo genesis as well. Therefore, without a written description of what is intended for a “cell proliferative disorder”, the scope of claim 22 has indefinite metes and bounds.

4. Enablement: Claim 22 remains rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Since there is no written description on which “cell proliferative disorder” can be treated, it would take undue experimentation for one skilled in the art to practice the claimed method.

Claim Objections

5. Claims 4, 10, 12, and 15-21 remain objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 1624

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
